

Obituary

Born: Thursday, January 25, 1979

Died: Saturday, February 21, 2015

Denise L. Mitchell, 36 of Grant St., Warren, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday February 21, 2015 at the Warren General Hospital.

Denise was born January 25, 1979 in Warren, Pa., a daughter to the late Dennis L. Jordan and Durinda Darling, who survives her of Youngsville. She was a 1997 graduate of Youngsville High School and then went on to earn her associate degree at J.C.C. Business College in business administrative information technology. Denise was an avid Motley Crue fan. She claimed to be their "biggest fan", and had the opportunity to go on 2 Motley Crue Cruises and meet the band. She also was a huge WWE fan and her favorite wrestler was Triple H. Denise's greatest passion though, was her support to our Troops. She was married to Sgt. Sean Mitchell who was killed in action during the Iraq War. After that, she devoted much of her time to supporting our troops, by organizing and shipping boxes of necessities to the troops overseas. She was also a major supporter to the Wounded Warrior Project. Any support she could give to our troops and veterans, she did. To know Denise, you would know of her big giving heart. This especially showed with her love of animals. No stray cat or dog went unfed in her neighborhood. She will be deeply missed by her family and many friends.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by her brother Dustin (Barbie) Jordan of Youngsville, her sister Tahme Ling of Jamestown, her companion Shannon Giffen of Warren, grandmother, Kaye Wood of Binghamton, N.Y, a half-sister, Peggy Jordan of Orlando, Fla, and a half- brother, Bruce Cash of North Carolina, her beloved Pomeranian, Tasha and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her father and husband, she was preceded in death by her grandfather, Richard Wood and her step- father Edwin "Bob" Darling.

Friends and family may call on Wednesday from 4-7 p.m. at the Nelson Funeral Home & Cremation Services, 314 North Main St. in Youngsville. A funeral service will be held there on Thursday at 11 a.m. with the chaplain Dave Mariner, family friend, officiating. Burial will follow at Warren Co. Memorial Park.

The family suggests memorial donations be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, www.woundedwarriorproject.org or to the Warren Co. Humane Society, 212 Elm St. Warren, Pa. 16365. Condolences to the family may be made at www.nelsonfuneralhome.net.
