

Obituary

Born: Monday, November 20, 1972

Died: Saturday, October 10, 2020

Aaron B. Farnsworth, 47, of Warren, died peacefully in his home Saturday afternoon October 10, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

Aaron was born November 20 1972 in Warren, a son to the late Burnie Farnsworth and Marsha Farnsworth, who survives him of Warren. Aaron was a 1990 graduate of Sheffield High School. He attended several colleges pursuing a degree in art. He was a gifted artist, who enjoyed painting beautiful landscapes, even after diabetes robbed him of most of his sight. He loved spending time with family and friends, landscaping and enjoyed summers in the sun on the beach. In his early adulthood, Aaron started his own landscaping Company in Wilmington, N.C., which he ran successfully for several years until his vision began to fail. He returned to Pennsylvania and became a counselor at Abraxis until he was no longer able to work and was in need of a kidney transplant, which he received in August of 2007.
