

Obituary

Born: Saturday, October 20, 1945

Died: Wednesday, September 15, 2021

Lesley Dickerson Kesterholt, 75, of Youngsville, passed away Wednesday September 15, 2021 at WCA Hospital in Jamestown.

She was born October 20, 1945 in London, England to the late Joseph and Lillian Dickerson Spragg. Lesley worked as the office manager at CPS plastics in Erie for a number of years. She also volunteered at the Rouse for several years prior to her surgery in 2018.

Lesley was a life long animal lover and adopted numerous cats into her home over the decades. She loved music and especially enjoyed her Zumba classes, sometimes attending 5 or more times a week. Her pride and joy was her mustang convertible, a dream car from her teen years in England. She was beautiful inside and out and will be forever in our hearts.
